

SPIDERS FAIL TO SCORE ON OARSMEN

Virginia Boat Club Eleven Shows Remarkable Form Against Trained Collegians.

DROP KICK FAILED

Quarterback Smith Made Great Attempt at Field Goal From Thirty-five-Yard Line.

Two evenly matched teams, representing Richmond College and the Virginia Boat Club, fought through two prettily played halves on the Broad Street gridiron yesterday, and when time was finally called, neither eleven had scored. The strength of the oarsmen was far beyond expectations, and in every department of the game, except in kicking, they appeared to be the equals of the well-trained, carefully coached collegians.

The Boat Club team had the advantage of weight, while, in the finer points, Coach Dunlop's men had the best of it. The play in the first half favored the Spiders, but in the second trial, their opponents, with fresh substitutes, seemed to brace, and frequently secured the ball on downs. Neither side was proficient in the forward pass, and the punting was not up to the standard that might have been expected.

Richardson's run for twenty yards, for the Boat Club, and Smith's attempt at a long drop kick from the thirty-five-yard line for the college, added spirit to the play.

The college men used several new players in the second half, but the Boat Club was equal to the occasion, and the game, to the end, was a battle royal. The college team, in the first half, showed better form than in the second. Line-up:

Boat Club.	Position.	College.

The General Demand

of the Well-Informed of the World has always been for a simple, pleasant and efficient liquid laxative remedy of known value; a laxative which physicians could sanction for family use because its component parts are known to them to be wholesome and truly beneficial in effect, acceptable to the system and gentle, yet prompt, in action.

In supplying that demand with its excellent combination of Syrup of Figs and Elixir of Senna, the California Fig Syrup Co. proceeds along ethical lines and relies on the merits of the laxative for its remarkable success.

That is one of many reasons why Syrup of Figs and Elixir of Senna is given the preference by the Well-Informed. To get its beneficial effects always buy the genuine—manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co., only, and for sale by all leading druggists. Price fifty cents per bottle.

BUSINESS ABANDONED, CITY BASEBALL CRAZY

PITTSBURG, PA., October 6.—With the world's series of games but one day off, Pittsburgh to-night practically has abandoned business and turned its attention to baseball and the world's series games, which begin here Friday.

The Detroit American League champions will arrive here in the morning and will indulge in secret practice during the day on Forbes Field. The Pittsburgh team already has put in hours of secret work, and will rest until the opening clash on Friday afternoon.

Through the courtesy of the officials of Greater Pittsburgh, Forbes Field is being enlarged to take in a section of Schley Park, a city property. Bleachers are being erected on the park's slope, and this, in a great measure, will eradicate the application of ground rules during the championship games here.

Premiums on seats at Friday's and Saturday's games are being offered on the streets to-night.

LAWYERS FAVOR RADICAL REFORMS

Norfolk Bar Association in Called Session Adopts Resolutions.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] NORFOLK, VA., October 6.—In called session yesterday the Norfolk Bar Association passed resolutions opposing poll-tax liens on real estate, and also put a stop to the circulation of petitions among the fraternity, where persons desire judicial positions or personal positions.

In the first instance a committee named is to report on the propriety of memorializing the Legislature for the removal of the poll or head tax as a lien on real estate. The idea is that it is an absolute nuisance in the examination of the titles of real estate, and often gives trouble in after years, the matter of the payment of poll-taxes often being hard to determine.

The discontinuance of endorsements to judicial and quasi-judicial positions was decided upon because of the general embarrassment it often entails, friends asking for such endorsements when the importunate man thinks it would not be wise for him to have the position.

Work on Tunnel at Lynchburg.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] LYNCHBURG, VA., October 6.—The work of restoring the burned tunnel on the new line of the Southern Railway around the city is being taken up gradually, and in a few weeks it will be under full way again. Nearly two months have been lost, for the fire was first discovered on August 11. Just 470 feet of the tunnel must be restored. The crown, which was filled with steam for a month, is cooling steadily now, this being accomplished at a rate of half a degree a day.

Spencer Mechanist Injured.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] SPENCER, N. C., October 6.—O. A. Chambers, a machinist at the Spencer shops, was seriously injured in the Southern yards here to-day. He was struck on the head by a dome, which fell from a locomotive. He was knocked down by the huge piece of iron, which fractured his skull.

He was picked up by fellow-workmen and taken to a hospital in Salisbury, where an operation was performed.

Dandridge—Lloyd.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] ALEXANDRIA, VA., October 6.—Christ Episcopal Church was the scene of a pretty marriage ceremony at 8 o'clock to-night when Miss Mary Robertson Lloyd, eldest daughter of Bishop Coakley-elect of Virginia, and Mrs. Arthur Selden Lloyd were united in marriage to Rev. Edmund Pendleton Dandridge, formerly of near Shepherdstown, W. Va.

The ceremony was performed by the father of the bride, assisted by Bishop Patterson, of West Virginia, and Rev. W. J. Morton, rector of Christ Church. A large assemblage of friends and relatives of the two families were present. The bride entered the church on the arm of her brother, John Lloyd, of the University of Virginia, by whom she was given in marriage. She was attended by her eldest sister, Miss Elizabeth Blackford Lloyd, and the groom was attended by his cousin, Edmund Pendleton Dandridge, of Pittsburgh, who served as best man.

The following served as ushers: Rev. John J. Gravatt, Jr., of New York; Rev. Clinton Quinn, of Kentucky; Rev. Henry Lane, of Warsaw, Va.; John Lloyd Uhler, of Pittsburgh, cousin of the bride; Edward Armstrong, of Baltimore; Louis Franklin, of Flushing, L. I.

Following the wedding a small reception was tendered the bride couple and their friends at the home of the bride's parents, Cameron and Alfred Streets. Rev. and Mrs. Dandridge afterwards departed for a Northern bridal trip.

HARD GAMES AHEAD FOR THE UNIVERSITY

After the St. John's College Game of the Coming Saturday, Virginia Will Meet the Big Teams of the South.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] CHARLOTTESVILLE, VA., October 6.—Much interest is evinced here over the football game to be played on Lambert Field Saturday between Virginia and St. John's of Annapolis.

The stiff game put up by the Marylanders against the Midshipmen goes to show that the St. John's boys have a very fast team this year, especially in the backfield. It will be remembered that last year this was the only team to score on Virginia. In the first half of that contest the visitors made a total of nine points, while Virginia was unable to score. In the second half, however, the varsity woke up and ran up a total of fourteen points, the final results being: Virginia, 14; St. John's, 9.

All of the games played thus far by Virginia have been purely practice games, and were won with comparative ease. William and Mary was defeated in the first contest, 30 to 0. Hampden-Sidney was the next victim, 37 to 0. Davidson College proved a much harder proposition, and the game was won, 11 to 0. As will be seen from these figures, Virginia has scored 73 points against her opponents, while her own goal line has not been crossed.

After Saturday the team begins to travel a hard row. Lehigh, at Norfolk, will be the game for the following Saturday, and the Navy, at Annapolis, for the Saturday after that. On November 6th, the last game scheduled for the home grounds during the season will be played, Virginia Military Institute being the opponent. After Georgetown, at Washington, will be played a week later, and then the season closes with North Carolina, in Richmond, on Thanksgiving Day.

This schedule is a pretty hard one, and Virginia will have to play good hard ball to make a creditable showing. From the present dope it looks as though the odds should be with Virginia in all of the future games, except the contest with the Navy. The game is terribly in doubt. By saying this, the odds look to be with Virginia. It is not meant to convey the impression that the varsity will have an easy time with Lehigh, V. M. I., Georgetown or North Carolina. Every one of these games will be hard fought, and every inch of ground will be hotly contested. The fact that Georgetown and Carolina were losers in last year's contests does not indicate that the result will be the same this year. As to Lehigh, this is the first time in some years that Virginia has played this team, and practically no comparison can be made yet.

The Navy, on paper, looks a bit stronger than Virginia, but it is very early in the season to make any calculations as to the comparative strength of the two teams. At any rate, the eleven which is sent from the University the latter part of the month will give the outsiders all they have.

This week is being devoted to hard practice. The varsity and scrub teams scrimmage every afternoon after a long signal practice. G. A. B. Doyell, who has been filling the gap at left guard, made vacant by Calfee's failure to return to college, has quit the game, having been forced to go to the hospital, suffering from erysipelas. His brother, G. A. Doyell, who played in the backfield last year, has also stopped reporting for practice, and says he will not play this season. Towles is being used at guard in Doyell's place.

It is by no means certain, however, that this line-up will remain unchanged. In fact, the probabilities are that changes will be made. Several of the new men are showing up in good form, and before the big games begin several of the scrubs may be found on the varsity.

Pierce, from Phillips-Anderson, is being played as a back on the scrub team. He may be switched to the line, however. Vanner, the old V. P. I. star, is showing up well, but is ineligible for this year.

A number of coaches are expected within the next few days to assist Coaches Neff and Crawford, who are the only men on the ground. The practice work will be continued and

PROMISED FIGHT DOESN'T HAPPEN

All Officers of North Carolina D. A. R. Are Unanimously Elected.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] CHARLOTTE, N. C., October 6.—With the election of officers and the selection of Statesville as the place for the next meeting, the Ninth State Congress, Daughters of the American Revolution, rolled into history to-day. The promised fight over the selection of a State regent failed to materialize, Mrs. John Van Landingham, together with the other State officers, being unanimously re-elected.

This afternoon the delegates were taken for an automobile ride to points of historic interest in the county, including the birthplace of President Polk, near Pineville. To-night, they were the guests at a reception at the home of Mrs. J. E. Reilly, in Dilworth.

It was decided at the meeting this morning that the birthplace of Andrew Jackson, near Waxhaw, in Union county, should be marked within the near future. There was some argument for a few moments as to whether or not a handsome monument, or a marker should be placed on the spot, and it was decided to have the marking done immediately, the monument to follow.

The officers are Mrs. John Van Landingham, of this city, regent; Mrs. William N. Reynolds, of Winston-Salem, vice-regent; Mrs. A. L. Smith, of this city, corresponding secretary; Miss Margaret Rankin, of this city, recording secretary; Mrs. H. D. Blake, of Greensboro, historian.
